SHERIFF KILLS BOLD BANK BANDIT

Receives Information of Intended Robbery; Hides in Back Room.

Mammoth Springs, Ark., June 21.—Sheriff M. C. Caruthers, warned that an attempt would be made to rob the Citizens' bank, of Mammoth Springs, secreted himself and three deputies in the rear of the bank and surprised three masked robbers after they had forced the woman cashier into a vault yesterday.

One of the robbers, Ben Jones, was shot and killed by sheriff Caruthers when the robbers showed fight. The excitement had hardly died down when Lee Burrow, relative to one of the masked men captured in the bank, was brought in town, suffering from a serious wound in the abdomen. He said Dr. Jones, father of the robber who was killed, and Howard Sears, a neighbor, had shot him because they believed he had informed the sheriff of the intentions of the robbers.

CREEL CATTLE TO BE IMPORTED AT MARFA

Bought by Cameron Cattle Co.; Will Be Brought to El Paso.

Three thousand head of cattle from the Creel ranges in the state of Chihuahua will be moved in the next 10 days to the United States, where they will be disposed of to American cattlemen. The cattle have been bought by the Cameron Cattle company, of this city, which has been handling the Creel cattle.

The cattle will be imported to this country near Marfa, Tex., being driven overland from the ranges of the Creel, in northeastern Chihuahua, to Ojinaga. The cattle will be loaded at Marfa and brought to El Paso.

Cattle Sent to Panhandle. Four hundred steers have been shipped from El Paso to the panhandle ranges, where they will be pastured for the present season. The cattle were shipped by W. C. Starling, who purchased them in this city.

SHOOT IN SELF DEFENSE ON RANCH

Man Telephones Sheriff at Alpine That He Killed a Mexican.

Sanderson, Tex., June 21.—News has just reached here of a killing on the Schupbach ranch, about 25 miles southwest of here, in Brewster county. John McBride was attacked by two Mexicans with rocks and knives. In self defense he drew his Winchester and fired, killing one of the men instantly, according to his report to the officers.

Clyde Cavin, a boy about 15 years of age, was with McBride at the time and was an eye witness to the tragedy. Immediately after the trouble, McBride rode to the nearest telegraph station and wired sheriff Walton that he was on his way to Alpine to surrender. McBride was well known here, being in the employ of Joe Nance, of this place.

PRETTY WEDDING OCCURS AT COLLEGE

State College, N. M., June 21.—The marriage of Mrs. Etta Green and G. L. Lahn was solemnized at the home of the bride Thursday afternoon in the presence of about 50 guests, all prominent people of the college and vicinity. The house was decorated in sweet peas, roses and carnations. The bride wore a gown of Atlantic blue messaline and carried maiden hair ferns and carnations. Miss Alice Sheppard, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Many beautiful presents were received, but the most notable was the hand decorated pitcher given by Los Solteros club, of which the groom is a member. It was decorated in detailed sketches of four of the largest of the college buildings. The work was done by a sister of R. E. Willard.

After the ceremony the bride and groom were taken to the train in Dr. Garrison's car, accompanied, in spite of rain and wind and dust storm, by several of the bride's party armed with the usual supply of rice and old shoes. Mr. and Mrs. Lahn will spend the first week of their honeymoon in Tucuman, with Mrs. J. R. Mundell, sister of the groom who was married just a year ago, and will then go on to Iowa to the home of Mr. Lahn's parents, returning to the college about the first of August.

This wedding is the culmination of a romance which began probably six years ago when Mrs. Green studied stenography under professor Lahn here at the college. Mrs. Green was college stenographer for about five years after completing her course in shorthand.

IT RAINED TO BEAT THE BAND THURSDAY

It rained to beat the band Thursday afternoon and evening. At least the Mexican concert in Cleveland square which was scheduled for Thursday evening failed to connect.

The rain took a running start in the Franklin mountains and swept down on a deluge and unrelentless city about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Attending strictly to its knitting the little rain storm kept the streets cleared until after the 6 o'clock whistles blew and made the going a bit heavy for the home folks and the street car business boats.

TIRES OF SEEING WORLD AS A TRAMP

"I have got enough of seeing the world," said Earl Day, a 12 year old Los Angeles boy, who is docketed at the police station on the charge of running a runaway boy, from his bunk on top of the cell in the run around at the city jail.

"There was a guy in Los Angeles—he was about 25 years old. I don't know his name—that said if I would come with him, he would show me the world. So I left my happy home."

"Before we started he said he had plenty of money, but he put me on the blind baggage and in that way we arrived in El Paso."

"When we got here he took all the money I had, and then disappeared." Day said that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Day, live in Los Angeles, and he would like to get back to them.

Sergeant Lon Garner has wired them, and is waiting to hear from them. Day was pulled off the top of a Southern Pacific coach en route to Los Angeles Thursday afternoon by patrolman Bob Lee.

MAN SUSPECTED OF VILLISCA MURDER ARRESTED AT ST. JOE.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 21.—John H. Bohlan, 40, of Hamburg, Pa., was arrested as he alighted from a train at the union station on complaint of L. T. Reed, Harlan fugitive and Charles Lesigwood, who had followed him from Hamburg and who suspected him of the murder of eight persons at Villisca, Pa.

Burge received a letter said to have been signed by Bohlan in which the latter said he had a vision in which some one was told to kill all persons who did not "have the mark of the Lord" upon them.

His strange actions caused the three men to follow him to St. Joseph and ask for his arrest.
